Our Retreat Concert this year: WIFE, MOTHER, SONGWRITER & WORSHIP LEADER

SHELLY E. JOHNSON

After everything the world endured in 2020, I knew God was up to something, and I began to pay attention and lean in to the voice of God like never before.

In January of 2021, God began pouring songs out, and within a matter of weeks, He made it abundantly clear He was asking me to do a brand new worship album called Great Awakening.

This past year has been a process of God awakening my own heart to the Truth, on so many levels, and I have never been more excited to release an album. I feel these songs in every fiber of my bones. I can't listen to them without crying. I believe these songs are seeds, straight from the heart of the Father to be planted into the hearts of His children and His Church, for such a time and season as right now!

The Great Awakening worship album is now available everywhere.

Question: My friend's 11 yr. Old son is abusing her during his week at her house. She is in the middle of a divorce with a restraining order. She feels like her husband is still over her. She called the police three times, and because the son is 11, they said they can't do anything unless its murder or rape.

My suggestion is she contact the mental health crisis team for pre-teens and teens. Let them come out and make an assessment. Another mom was able to connect with Juvenile Diversion once her son reached age 12. Also, if there is a GAL involved, she can reach out and ask the GAL for a referral for trauma-therapy for him.

It's so hard. I had issues with my daughter similar to that, and eventually was able to get her into a wilderness camp. Our Parenting Traumatized children has some practical tips. There are no easy answers for these situations, because it's hard to find resources. She can check into intensive home care. There are organizations who do that sort of things. Here is an example of one in our area.

Very damaging & confusing for her 💔 when her Church leaders tell her these same things "Go home & do better...what did you do to make him", etc. etc....
